Required documentation:

American citizens traveling to Argentina or Uruguay do not need to apply for a visa. Only, a valid Passport is required for all US and Canadian citizens. Note: Please check the expiration date on your passport. The passport must not expire sooner than six months from the date that you enter the foreign country (your arrival date in South America). Adobe Travel, LLC is not responsible for any delays, damages and/or losses, including missed portions of the PACKAGE due to improper, stolen, or lost travel documentation.

Hunting and fishing licenses:

Adobe Travel, LLC or our Providers will purchase all applicable hunting and/or fishing licenses in the name of the client prior to arrival except for those noted. Our guides will keep the license in our possession during the duration of the hunt. By signing below, the client(s) agree to cooperate with Adobe Travel, LLC and our partners, contractors, and service providers by adhering to, and abiding by, all: local and federal laws, bag limits, and safety regulations set forth by the outfitters themselves, their guides, and/or the governing country, province, county, and city without reservation or evasion. The final determination as to the safety, and overall conduct of the hunt rests with the Providers, and by signing this document, you agree to defer to the Providers decision as final. No refunds will be given, nor shall they be expected, if a hunt is cancelled for inclement weather conditions, or safety reasons.

Hunting:

Adobe Travel, LLC and its partners are committed to providing excellent shooting and angling opportunities, but we do not guarantee any specified number of birds, shooting opportunities, or bag limits on any or all days of the trip.

Even though South America is renowned for having arguably some of the best bird hunting found anywhere, it is still hunting. Just like hunting migratory birds anywhere, all hunts are subject to occasional inconsistencies and unforeseen circumstances. Therefore, no refunds, full or partial, will be paid by Adobe Travel, LLC, or our providers, for any reason.

Because our prices are based on Scheduled Packages, no refunds are made for any feature or service that you do not use. For this reason, we strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. Buying trip cancellation insurance is your only assurance against losing your investment due to unforeseen circumstances.

Furthermore, Adobe Travel, LLC will not be held responsible for refunding any monies paid for hunts or fishing trips that are not productive, or possible, due to adverse weather conditions (dense fog, heavy rain, thunderstorms, or very high winds). The determination of whether or not a hunt or fishing trip can begin, or continue due to weather rests solely with the outfitter and guides conducting the trip. All hunters will accept the guide's instructions and decision as final, without reservation or evasion, protest, or argument. Any individual who attempts to interfere, intimidate, threaten or assault any member of the Providers' staff will be subject to expulsion for the remainder of the trip without refund. Your signature on this document indicates your understanding and acceptance of this protocol.

Special note regarding waterfowl hunting: Standard operating procedure for waterfowl hunting destinations in Argentina calls for a morning waterfowl hunt, every day. Afternoon hunts will be conducted at the hunters' preference, when possible—but the normal afternoon hunts consist of dove and/or Perdiz (when in season).

Limits:

Ducks: Limits are determined by the outfitter, and will be listed on your invoice.

Perdiz: In both Argentina and Uruguay, we enforce a strict limit of 10 birds per day, per hunter.

Golden Dorado Fish: no limit, unless otherwise directed by the local outfitter and/or his or her guides.

Doves and Pigeons: There are no bag limits, or limits on boxes of shells available for the hunt.

Refusal of Service:

Adobe Travel, LLC d/b/a Los Gauchos Outfitters reserves the right to refuse service, or discontinue service at any time, to anyone, for any reason.

All policies regarding drugs, drunkenness, proper conduct, and gun safety will be strictly enforced. Violators are subject to immediate expulsion, without refund of any kind—including unused days of the trip. The decision to expel a member, or members, from the lodge will be made by the general manager on duty for any given lodge, and his or her decision is final. Your signature on this document indicates your understanding and acceptance of this protocol.

Drugs and Alcohol:

THE POSSESSION OR USE OF ILLEGAL DRUGS IS ILLEGAL, AND STRICTLY PROHIBITED. We strongly recommend that no client attempt to bring a controlled substance into South America, drug enforcement is strong, and the punishments are SEVERE (mandatory prison sentences in most cases). DO NOT RISK IT!

The consumption of alcoholic beverages while hunting is also prohibited—no exceptions. Any hunter determined to be intoxicated shall not be allowed to handle a firearm for 24 hours. Any guest who becomes belligerent, or offensive, or dangerous as a result of drinking alcohol will be expelled from the remainder of the trip without refund of any kind, including all remaining unused portions of the trip. Your signature on this document indicates your understanding and acceptance of this protocol.

Proper Conduct:

Inappropriate and/or lewd behavior of any kind (example: severe intoxication, any groping of waitresses, and/or or massage therapists) will not be tolerated. The Provider's manager on duty reserves the right to make the determination if an individual, or individuals, are behaving in a unaccepttable, lewd, or obscene manner, and make the final decision as to whether to counsel, or expel the individual, or individuals, from the trip. Violators are subject to expulsion without refund. Your signature on this document indicates your understanding and acceptance of this protocol.

Safety:

All hunters will ensure that their guns are unloaded at the lodge, and during transportation. All hunters will keep their actions open, and guns unloaded until instructed by the guides to load them. Safeties will remain on while loading and unloading, as well as between shots. All hunters will follow the instructions set forth by our guides in the field regarding positioning and placement.

No hunters shall fire a shot during a duck hunt until the shot is called by the guide. Two warnings will be issued by the guide. After a third warning, any offender(s) will be subject to removal from the field for the rest of the day.

Additionally, no hunter shall point his/her gun in the direction of another person at any time. Additionally, at no time shall a hunter shoot over the body of another hunter in the party, nor at birds that are behind the decoys. Eye protection will be worn at all times in the hunting areas. Any unsafe operation of firearms constitutes inappropriate conduct, and is grounds for expulsion from the trip, without refund. Your signature on this document indicates your understanding and acceptance of this protocol.

Shotguns and ammunition:

You will fill the form out in advance, and our representatives will handle all of your firearms processing right there in the baggage claim area of the airport. We recommend guests bring 12 gauge shotguns for waterfowl hunting. For all other wingshooting, the following ammunition is available: 20 ga. All ammunition purchased by the client will be settled on premises prior to departure.

The ammunition bill may be paid by: cash at all destinations (USD) and credit cards ONLY AT SELECT DESTINATIONS. Please confirm the payment policy for you destination.

Deposits and Cancellations:

A deposit in the amount of 50% of the land package reserves an option to buy space for you, or your group at the lodge. A deposit for each member of the group is required. If you are depositing for other members of your party, please specify their names in the appropriate fields on the Payment Form or Invoice. Please send the names and contact information of all members traveling to the destination's representative and office. Once the client books the space(s) there is absolutely no refund of deposit, unless a replacement guest is provided. The payment of your nonrefundable deposit constitutes agreement and understanding of all Terms and Conditions including the Service Agreement and Release of Waiver.

We highly recommend that the client purchase trip cancellation insurance. It is not expensive, and offers protection in case unexpected events force a cancellation. However, trip insurance benefits do not end there. Many policies provide protection against cancelled flights, missed connections, and some provide health benefits and MEDEVAC in a rider.

Travel Insurance:

We recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance with accident and medical coverage. It is available from AIG Travelguard Insurance Company. Please contact Adobe Travel LLC office for insurance enrollment.

Tipping and Gratuities:

Tips for outstanding service are expected and encouraged at destinations where they are not included in the Land Package. Ask the manager on duty at your particular location for the local tipping protocol.

Food and Beverage:

All destinations serve outstanding food, and it is all complimentary (unless otherwise specified on your invoice, for select fishing destinations). Local beer, fine wine, and soft drinks are also free of charge (unless otherwise specified on your invoice for certain fishing locations). Clients are invited to bring along their own bottles of liquor if a particular label is preferred. We cannot guarantee that your label will be available in South America, even in the duty free shops. Crown Royal is a good example; it is not available for sale in South America. Certain lodges have fine cigars available for an additional charge.

Weather:

Check our website for the typical weather at your intended destination.

Health:

No inoculations are required for travel to Argentina or Uruguay. However, The Providers are not qualified to give medical advice or suggestions. Please consult your physician and the CDC (Center for Disease Control) for advice. Unlike Mexico, tap water is generally safe to drink in South America. However, do so at your own risk. Bottled water is always available.

Electricity:

All electrical outlets put out 220 volt, 50 cycle power. Be sure to check the manufacturers operating manual for all electronic devices to make sure that they accept high voltage. Make sure that any aftermarket device use to power your device is not just a converter, but also a step down transformer, if necessary. When in doubt, please ask for help! Most modern notebook computers and digital cameras can accept voltage up to 225V. Neither The Providers nor any of our partners, contractors, or service providers accepts any responsibility for damage occurring to electronic devices that have been improperly powered or charged.

Ground Transportation:

Ground transportation from airport to airport, or airport to hotel in Buenos Aires, or airport to the shooting areas (i.e. Uruguay) is not included in the Land Package. Please see your invoice for the cost of ground transportation for your trip.

Hotels:

We have contracts with several five star hotels in Buenos Aires: The Hotel Intercontinental Buenos Aires can offer you our contract rate of about $149 dollars per night. We will be happy to make the reservations for you free of charge. All hotel prices are subject to change without notice, before booking.

Airfares:

Because of the volatility of airfares in recent years we regret that we are not able to include them in the package price. If we were to buy advance tickets for our customers in the current airline market, what would most likely happen would be that the customer, or our company, would end up paying too much. We regret any inconvenience this may cause in making your travel plans; however, we will be happy to make travel arrangements for you, free of charge.

General Provisions

This agreement shall, in all respects, be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, applicable to agreements executed and to be performed within or without the State of Texas, Dallas County. By signing this document, you agree that any and all disputes arising between you and Adobe Travel, LLC, and/or the Providers from, over, or concerning any detail in this agreement shall be adjudicated exclusively in a court in Dallas County, Texas, and in no other state, county, city, or country.

Force Majeure:

Adobe Travel, LLC and Los Gauchos cannot be held liable for any claims, losses, damages, costs, expenses, delays, loss of enjoyment, of any nature or kind whatsoever, to the traveler and/or traveling companions, resulting from events beyond Adobe Travel, LLC's, Los Gauchos, or a vendor's or supplier's control, including but not limited to acts of God, strikes, lockouts, or other labor disputes or disruptions, pandemic or local diseases, wars, blockades, insurrections, riots, earthquakes, weather conditions, floods, or laws, acts, or restraints imposed by government authorities.

The terms of this agreement shall be binding between the undersigned client and all Providers, listed or otherwise. The Providers offer these hunting and fishing vacations solely as a booking agency (travel facilitator) and shall not be liable for any loss, cost, injury, death or damage to a persons or property which results directly or indirectly from any act, whether negligent or otherwise, of commission or omission including but not limited to delays, or any person, service, firm, or corporation which provides products or services in connection with the clients trip for hunting, fishing, sightseeing, hiking, or guest ranching. This includes, but is not limited to the following: hotels, taxis, chauffeurs, lodging, meals, mishandled or damaged luggage or personal effects, transportation, and other services.

The Providers, contractors, agents, sub-agents, subsidiaries and service providers (herein called “Providers”) reserve the right in their discretion to cancel or change any part of the itinerary without notice, and for any reason. Prices advertised are subject to change at any time for any reason. If a price change must be affected, the client will have the option to pay the new price and continue with the trip, or receive a 100% refund of the land package. The Providers will not be held responsible for a refund of any portion the clients’ airfare—without exception. Therefore, the Providers recommend that all customers purchase trip cancellation insurance, preferably with personal property coverage and medical (hospitalization and MEDEVAC) / accident coverage.

The Providers act only as agents for contractors, lodge owners, and outfitters, airlines, railroads, ship owners, charter air carriers (herein called "Charters"), providing means of transportation or other services; therefore, all tickets, vouchers and contracts of such Charters are issued subject to any and all tariffs, terms and conditions under which such accommodations, means of transportation or other services are offered or provided and the issuance and acceptance of any such tickets, vouchers, and contracts shall be deemed to be consent to further conditions:

a) The Providers are not liable or responsible in any way in connection with such Charters, for any loss, injury or damage to or in respect to any person or property howsoever caused or arising;

b) Air carriers involved are not held responsible for any act, commission, or event during the time the passengers are not aboard their airplane: the passenger contract or tickets in use by the airline, the purchaser of any of these tours and/or the passenger;

c) The services of any IATA or ARC carrier may be used in connection with these tours;

d) Prices quoted are based on foreign exchange values and tariffs currently in effect and are subject to change;

e) Baggage and personal effects are including items purchased, are the sole responsibility of the owners at all times and no employee/agent of the Providers shall be responsible for their loss or damage.

The Providers reserve the right to make such alterations in the itinerary as it seems to them necessary or desirable, to refuse to accept or retain as a member of the party any person, at any time (in such case a refund will be based on the actual cost of the unfinished portion of the tour, unless the exclusion occurs a result of a violation of our Terms & Conditions, Payment Form or this Service Agreement) and to pass on to tour members expenditures occasioned by delays or offense beyond their control.

The Providers reserve the right to cancel any trip prior to departure, in which case a full refund will constitute full settlement to the passenger.

Everything offered as part of the trip is described in writing in the enclosed Terms & Conditions, which is presented to all clients and evidenced of reading, understanding, and accepting by the e-signature on the on-line acceptance of the Terms and Conditions. All information therein shall be fully binding, without exception.

Therefore, no other representation, description, or promises are valid unless they are confirmed in writing by one of The Providers. No partner, agent, sub-agent, host, guide, or service provider is authorized to negotiate, or alter the written agreement between the client and The Providers in any way, shape, or form. The payment of deposit by the client(s) is deemed as accordance, understanding, and agreement of the above conditions.

By accepting this document via the online or signing and mailing the hard copy to our office, the client acknowledges that he/she has read and understands this Agreement fully. In the event that the client deposits for other members of his/her party, the client agrees to accept full financial responsibility for all persons. For example, in the event that a third party member of your group cancels, the undersigned will bear full responsibility for that clients deposit in the event of a cancellation. Once again, all non-refundable deposits are simply options to hold the space for you and/or your group open. The trip is not actually purchased until final payment is made, 90 days prior to arrival. Both payments are 100% non- refundable.

The balance (remaining 50%) of the package charge is due in our office 90 days prior to the first day of the trip. If the balance is not paid within 85 days prior to departure, the client will be notified. Upon notification, the client will have 48 hours to wire the payment into an account of The Providers specification in order to not forfeit their reservation, and 50% deposit. No exceptions will be made, or should be implied.

Before signing (either by printing this document and mailing to Adobe Travel LLC OR completing the online acceptance , I agree that I have read, understand and accept all of the content of this Agreement and the Terms and Conditions.
